

It's That Time of the Year Again...

The Swiss Club of Singapore is thrilled to once again host possibly the biggest and undoubtedly the best Oktoberfest celebration in Southeast Asia.

Anyone who's ever been to a Swiss Club Oktoberfest will know what to expect. It includes a feast of fantastic food, amazing live music, a frenzied whirlwind of swirling dirndls and lederhosen on the dance floor, and barrel after barrel of ice-cold beer.

From the hallowed tapping of the barrel every evening to the family-friendly Frühschoppen Sunday, it's true to Bavarian tradition – with a splash of legendary Swiss hospitality thrown in to the mix.

Get ready for five days of full-strength, undiluted fun!

Oktoberfest Highlights

- A 2,800 sq m fully air-conditioned tent set in the sprawling jungle of the Swiss Club
- A hearty buffet of Bavarian and international dishes including pork knuckle, sausages, meatloaf, and a whole-ox rotisserie weighing in at 260 kilograms
- A tantalising dessert spread including traditional classics such as Apfelstrudel and Blackforest Cake
- Live music by the award-winning Musikkapelle Partenkirchen brass band, direct from Germany
- A special guest performance
- A nightly 'tapping of the barrel' ceremony along with German lager and wheat ale on tap

27 – 30 September 2023

(Wednesday to Saturday, 7pm - late)

$85 – $145 per adult

(aged 18 and above) Beverages sold separately

at $60 per booklet of beverage coupons

(10 x $6 coupons)

Family-Friendly Fröhshoppen Sunday

True to Oktoberfest tradition, the annual celebrations culminate in Fröhshoppen Sunday – a day devoted to children and families.

Not quite as wild as the night before, it's gentle on the hangovers and easy on the mums and dads. Your little ones will be enthralled by the music and the magic show – not to forget the ever-popular bouncy castle. Meanwhile, grownups can relax and refresh their palates with ice-cold beverages and a big buffet-style brunch.

Book early for this once-a-year family event!

- Popcorn, cotton candy and ice cream stations
- The ever-popular bouncy castle
- A delightful live magic show
- Live music by the award-winning Musikkapelle Partenkirchen brass band, direct from Munich, Germany

What a Blast!

The quintessential big brass band, the award-winning 10-piece Musikkapelle Partenkirchen is back – for the 23rd time. Amazing but true, the very same band has performed at every single Oktoberfest held at the Swiss Club. Though a few of the faces may have changed over the years, the key members have remained constant.

Once again, the band will be belting out their eclectic repertoire of raunchy rock anthems, crowd-pleasing pop tunes, traditional Bavarian folk songs and rousing drinking ditties. The dance floor is bound to get a pounding of seismic proportions.

This year, like last year, the band will be sharing the limelight with a special guest act. It's hush-hush for now – but suffice to say, you'll be wowed!

Special guest act!

Lie down on a Bed of Roses and rest up for the performance of a lifetime...

Cheers! Santé! Skol! Prost!

If you were asked to say the first word that springs to mind when you hear 'Oktoberfest', you'd probably say 'beer'. Though Oktoberfest is technically a celebration of all Bavarian culture not just a beer festival, it's true that beer is an integral part of it. And as you know, the Swiss Club always prides itself on the calibre of its food – and its beverages!

Especially for Oktoberfest, we'll be importing a special German lager along with refreshing German Weiss and Dunkel wheat ale. Alcohol-free Erdinger beer, Jägermeister, champagnes, wines, soft drinks and juices will also be served.

If you dare, work up a thirst and order one of our spectacular beer towers. Made for sharing with friends they're a fantastic photo opp!
